Exploring imagery

Read the poem 'Waiting' by Val Neubecker.

Part A
In the left column, list the visual descriptions given of the scene.
Part B	Part C
Now imagine this poem is called 'A Country Day'. Record three images of the country in the daytime by finishing the following lines:	Which image from the original poem 'Waiting' did you like the most? On the lines below, write out the image and explain why you like it.
We walked, my mum and I, under
Down to where
On the way home we laughed at
