

Comprehension questions

Were you paying attention when reading 'The Dog Without a Name'? Answer the following questions on the story—be prepared to back your answers up with evidence from the story.

1. What did the carer mean when he asked the dog, 'What's your story, then?'

---

---

2. Why did the dog wait until the carer had left before eating her meal?

---

---

3. Why do you think the children went to an animal shelter to read?

---

---

4. Why do you think Jack and that particular dog were drawn to one another?

---

---

5. What did Bella mean by 'Something wondrous was happening'?

---

---

6. In the box below, draw a picture of Jack and Bella at home in their new garden.

