

Using headings, images and captions

Turn to the article 'Don't Play Ball with the Mayas'.

1. Before you read, record your predictions about each section in the left-hand column below, based on the article's subheadings, images and captions.
2. Now read the article and summarise in no more than three dot points what was in the section. Write the summaries in the second column. The first one has been done for you.

Predictions of section content	Actual content
A. Subheading: No easy score
The section will contain information about how to score a goal.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Players weren't allowed to touch the ball with their hands or their feet.</li><li>• Getting the ball through the hoop was difficult.</li><li>• Games could continue for days.</li></ul>
B. Subheading: Ouch!
C. Subheading: Courts for sport

3. Discuss the similarities and differences between your predictions and reality with a partner.

4. Answer the following questions:

A. Describe something that surprised you from the article.

B. Describe in your own words something you learnt from the article.

---

C. Explain how the images made the text more interesting and informative.
