Frequently Asked Questions

Access

How do we participate in the festival?

Grab your free ticket from our Eventbrite Page and in the confirmation email there will be a link at the bottom of your email for you to click on.

This link will take you to our Literary Festival page. This page will be updated the week of the Literary Festival for you to access the daily festival events.

Please note: please carefully read the Eventbrite emails that are automatically sent. You need to be logged into your Eventbrite account before you can view the Eventbrite online page that will provide you with the Literary Festival Page link. Use the email that you used to purchase your ticket to login to your Eventbrite account.

Tickets available at <https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/the-wonderful-world-of-words-a-literary-festival-with-the-school-magazine-tickets-111767720260>

I'm a teacher, how many tickets should I acquire?

We recommend 1 teacher to acquire 1 ticket for their class to gain access for the virtual festival.

If you have a colleague or there's another individual who wants to sign up for the virtual festival with their class, we highly recommend they acquire their own ticket using their own email address to gain access to the festival.

I'm a subscriber, how do I access the festival on Days 3, 4 and 5?

You will need two logins.

Login 1: Use your Eventbrite account to login to access the Literary Festival link. Use the email address that you used to purchase your Eventbrite ticket to login to your Eventbrite account. Then click on the Literary Festival virtual link. This will prompt you to The School Magazine website.

Login 2: Use your teacher/individual login to The School Magazine website. This would have been set up by your school's Subscription Manager. Since you are logged in, when you click on our Day 3, 4, or 5 links, you have access to all of them. Hint: save the Literary Festival Page on your internet browser.

Please note: if you do not have your login information, please contact your school's Subscription's Manager, or email The School Magazine at:

How long will the festival page be accessible for?

Only for 2 weeks. This also includes the digital content for our artists on Day 1 and Day 2.

Is there a time frame for each daily event?

No. Each day's link will GO LIVE for that day, and will be LIVE for 2 weeks. For example, the website page created for Day 1: Monday 24 August – The World of Ursula Dubosarsky and Plays will go live on that Monday at 8:30am and will be accessible for 2 weeks for everyone. You can click onto that page at any time within the 2 weeks that it is accessible. Another example, the website page created for Day 4: Thursday 27 August – The World of Zoë Disher and Articles will go live on that Thursday at 8:30am and will be accessible for 2 weeks for subscribers only.

Content

What does each festival day consist of?

1. We have pre-recorded vox pop videos from each artist talking about their craft (videos are 3-6mins long).
2. Student activities complementing that daily event. Worksheets will be available. For example, we have student activities about plays on Day 1, and about poetry for Day 5.
3. You will have access to a library of resources of that daily artist's work published in The School Magazine.
4. Links to the artists' websites to discover more of their work.
5. Overall Literary Festival Activities such as colouring-in sheets and puzzlers.

Are the vox pop videos interactive?

No, the videos are not interactive. They are not livestreamed. Each artist has pre-recorded their video for the festival. The videos are informal and fun for schoolchildren from Year 2 to Year 6.

How many student activities are there for each daily event?

Our student activities will vary for each daily event. There may be one or two student activities for that featured artist's festival day, as well as the artist's work to read.

How can I search The School Magazine's content to find out more about an artist?

If you are a subscriber you will have full access to all of our digital content. Login to The Student Magazine website and click on the Explore Page. Search an artist's name in the search bar and all the content they have created for The School Magazine will be available for you to view.
